SUBJECT: "Where's What."

2. Dr. Gunn stated that it had, indeed, come up. He indicated that during the Christmas week, 1971, he had discussions on several matters with Mr. Martin Danziger, NILE&CJ/LEAA. Danziger mentioned that he had explored the possibility of publication of [REDACTED] book which is now in unclassified form, but found that the Government Printing Office would not publish it because [REDACTED] has not obtained release-forms from individuals or firms or government units whose forms he reproduced in the book. Danziger asked Dr. Gunn if Dr. Gunn felt CIA would be willing to print up another edition of the classified version of the work for LEAA distribution to police. Dr. Gunn told Danziger that he believed CIA would not agree to this because: CIA's printing charter probably does not allow printing for other government agencies in lieu of the GPO; and, CIA would not allow dissemination of a classified document to persons not security approved to receive such information. Dr. Gunn recommended against the proposal by Danziger, and has indicated he did not want to get in the middle on the matter of publishing the book.

3. [REDACTED]'s call to the DD/OS and the latter's conversation with Mr. Danziger of 2 February 1972, would indicated that Danziger has not followed Dr. Gunn's suggestion.
